Akoma's Parent EmPOWERment Program

During Sankofa Saturdays, Parent-to-parent support networks are built as parents discover their innate power to educate their children!

Activities include: Community garden, Coding club, Film Club, and a new Girl Scouts Troop

- African-centered framework works to cultivate healthy families, organize people for racial and climate justice and economic empowerment.

Keeping Alive the Legacies of Westside Leadership

Akoma in Ghanaian means tolerance and patience, which perfectly encapsulates this center's mission to invest in the future.

Soul Food Celebrations keep alive the tradition of community welcome dinners which Anne Shirrells and other community leaders hosted at Johnson Hall in the 50s and 60s.
