

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

LIBERATION THROUGH EDUCATION

DR. AMOS ISAAC
EDUCATOR & ACTIVIST

SWIPE TO LEARN MORE ABOUT
DR. AMOS ISAAC

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Amos was a Black pioneer in Education. He was the second Black teacher to teach in the Redlands Unified School District

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

He earned a masters degree at the University of Redlands and PHD at Claremont University

Amos walked by foot from San Bernardino to the UofR

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

He was highly involved in his community and activist organizations. Dr. Amos ran for school board several times, hoping to be the 1st Black board member in the RUSD

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

“

I would say that there's always the need to reflect out a presence of historical Black roots and the contributions that we've made

”

More info on Dr. Isaac and the historical Black roots of the I.E will be up on the website soon, follow our account for updates!

Photo Credits

Estella Isaac-Wells

University of Redlands Archive

Redlands Daily Fact

If you are interested in contributing to the collection contact us at archives@csusb.edu.